

La Bergerie in Lorgues (Provence)

Our free standing Bergerie, an old shepherd lodging, was built from stone and in the last 100 years has been well revised twice. Today the house has 85 m² living room.

The wild growing nature on the 5500 m² property with old trees provides one side for quiet activities, another side for exploration. A big swimming pool (10x5 m) brings in summer refreshment. The southern orientation that both the terraces have guarantees optimal utilization of the 300 sunny days in the year!

The Bergerie, which is at the end of a slight country road, is an oasis for relaxation throughout the year!

Lorgues, a pretty little town in the heart of the green Provence, is just 1.5 km away. It has numerous restaurants and shopping. Each Tuesday is "market day", a wonderful, large provencal farmer's market. There are various possibilities for sports in the area, such horseback riding, kayaking, swimming, hiking, bicycling...

Draguignan, the next closest large city, is 13 km away. From Lorgues, the Mediterranean beaches are 40 km away and Saint Tropez can be reached in 1 hour. A further highlight, reachable in 45 minutes, is the Gorges du Verdon with its adjacent lake „Lac de Sainte Croix“.

The closest airport, Nice, is 1 hour away; Marseille, in the other direction, is 30 minutes further.

Furnishings:

The house is furnished with modern comforts, while preserving it's provencal style and rustic charm. As the house developed, the bedrooms can only be entered from the outside, and the bathroom is located between the two bedrooms. Wall mounted electric heaters are in each room.
